PRESS RELEASE

Paring Knives with Sheath

These Japanese paring knives find themselves right at home in a chef's kitchen as well as a traveler's backpack. Once inside the sheath, the knife is accessible from an office drawer, a glove box or even your back pocket. The stainless steel, four inch blade is available in a pointed or square end knife. Both knives are available in single units or as a ten pack, pop up display box. Cut fruits and vegetables with ease, where ever you please with Down to Earth's paring knives.
